

Thank you for your purchase!

Every purchase empowers me to continue doing what I love - creating music - so firstly, thank you very much for your continued support! I truly value your business.

Please don't forget to rate your purchase:

If you haven't already done so, I would greatly appreciate it if you would take a moment to rate your purchase.

To rate a song simply navigate (when logged into your AudioJungle account) to the menu at the top right of the page and select "downloads". It will then bring up your recent downloads where you can rate each item.

(New!) IMDB Credit:

If you've licensed a song for television or film use, it would be great if you would credit me over on IMDB!

I'd love to hear from you:

Whether your project is large or small, I'm always interested to see where my music is used. Seeing my work online not only inspires me to continue to bring new music regularly, but also helps me to build my portfolio and assess music needs out there that may still exist.

I also periodically feature work shared by customers on my own website! So if your project is online I would love to see it! You can let me know about it by contacting me here:

Frequently Asked Questions:
